

Top 10 Keys to the Success of “On The Map”

10. Displays detailed local information about location of workers and firms without suppression.
9. Is widely available and easy to use on the web (Section 508 compliant)
8. Implements latest confidential protection method in synthetic data.

7. Allows visualization of massive amounts of data.
6. Builds continuing collaboration between federal and state partners.
5. Allows for the visualization of cross-state commuting patterns.

4. Produces new, enhanced information at low cost,
3. and no additional respondent burden.
2. Creates potential applications in transportation planning, emergency preparedness and response, and economic dislocation such as military base closings.

1.

The Number 1 key to On the Map's success

you...